Cease-Fire in Laos Talks to Be Set Up

LONDON (AP) — The British government announced today it has reached agreement with the Soviet Union on preliminary arrangements for a cease-fire in Laos.

Joseph Godber, undersecretary of the Foreign Office, told the House of Commons that Andrei A. Gromyko, the Soviet foreign minister, and the British ambassador in Moscow had worked out the agreement.

"Gromyko has assured the ambassador of the desire of the Soviet government for an immediate cease-fire to precede an international conference of 14 nations which should now meet, provided the Swiss government convenes in Geneva on May 12, Godber said.

The 14 nations are Britain, the Soviet Union, the United States, Communist China, France, Cambodia, Communist North Viet Nam, South Viet Nam, Laos, Thailand, Burma, India, Poland and Canada.

Godber said pertinent communications would be made public Tuesday.

Verification that the fighting has stopped will be the responsibility of an Indian-Canadian-Polish commission.

NEW DELHI (AP) — Britain and the Soviet Union asked India today to convene the three-nation commission to supervise a cease-fire in Laos and India agreed.

India also accepted an invitation to attend a 14-nation conference on Laos to begin in Geneva May 12.

British High Commissioner Sir Paul Gore-Booth and Soviet Ambassador I. A. Benediktov gave Indian Prime Minister Nehru three documents.

One asked him to call the control commission, which also includes Canada and Poland and which was first established by the 1947 Indo-China armistice.

The second document invited India to Geneva. The third was an information copy of the British and Soviet appeal for cease-fire in Laos.

Gore-Booth said he was uncertain when the cease-fire appeal would go into effect, but it will be published Tuesday.

Informed sources said the three peace commissioners are likely to meet in New Delhi Thursday and go to Laos Friday.

Ouachita Can Enter Into Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today gave Ouachita County permission to intervene in a suit challenging the manner in which the state Board of Apportionment re-divided seats in the Arkansas House as a result of the 1960 census.

The board made only one change—it took away a seat from Mississippi County and gave one to Miller County.

Jefferson and Polk County have filed suits contesting the action.

The plaintiffs feel their counties should have gained a seat because of population gains.

Ouachita, like Poinsett which intervened earlier, will support the board action.

Each has two representatives and kept them despite population losses.

State Income Is Up But Still Is Low

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every state registered new highs in personal incomes in 1960, but Arkansas and Mississippi still bring up the rear.

Mississippi was last with an average per person income of $1,190. Arkansas was 49th with $1,396.

Arkansas' total income went up from $2,370,000,000 in 1959 to $2,447,000,000 in 1960.

The 1959 per-person income in Arkansas was $1,332, so the state made a per-person gain of $73 in 1960.

Mississippi gained $21 per person and its total personal income went up from $2,520,000,000 to $2,447,000,000.

The Commerce Department, in releasing the figures, said the national average was $2,159, which is $773 more than the Arkansas average. The total income of all Americans increased by 5 per cent last year to $491.6 billion. The 1959 total was $380.7 billion.

Calvary Baptists Start Church

Calvary Baptist Church on West Avenue B took a step forward Sunday, April 23 with groundbreaking ceremonies for the construction of a new sanctuary which will seat 300 and cost about $250,000.

The building which will be connected to the present building with a covered walk, will be of Haydite block construction and will be finished in white with a colonial front. In addition to the sanctuary which will seat 300 the new building will contain two offices, four Sunday School classrooms and a library.

Calvary Church started as a mission of First Baptist Church in October 1956 and enrolled 38 in Sunday School that first Sunday. Rev. James Hunt served as pastor until January 1960. Under his leadership the mission was organized into a church in January 1959. Rev. M. T. McGregor, Hope association missionary, served as interim pastor from January 1960 until July 1960.

Rev. J. D. Passmore became pastor in July 1960. Under his leadership a building drive has been successfully carried out and building plans have been completed. Actual construction will probably begin sometime this week weather permitting.

Calvary Church has a graded Sunday School and Training Union, Women's Missionary Society, Girls' Auxiliary, Men's Brotherhood, and Royal Ambassador Chapter. The church is affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention. At present the church has a Sunday School enrollment of 154 and a Training Union enrollment of 72.

Mullins Installed at University

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. David W. Mullins was formally installed as president of the University of Arkansas today and in his inaugural address urged massive support of higher education.

Mullins said in a speech prepared for delivery at the ceremony the university is on the threshold of a new era which will be "by far the most challenging and exciting period of its development."

Citing the need for increased financial support, Mullins said, "We cannot meet the demands of the space age with a pre-World War II system of higher education."

Calvary Baptist Groundbreaking

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, WEST Avenue B, held groundbreaking ceremonies yesterday for its proposed $250,000 sanctuary which will have a capacity of 300. Left to right in the picture: Rev. J. D. Passmore, Pastor; Jesse Nusko, chairman of the building committee, and members Dannie Hamilton, Mrs. Hamilton, Delton Calhoun, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Holt were not present.

Omnibus Law Goes Before High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today took under consideration a motion to speed hearing on an appeal of a suit contesting Gov. Orval E. Faubus $14.5 million omnibus law.

Bruce Bullion, attorney for the plaintiff, Pulaski County Rep. J. H. Cottrell, said he could file his brief by next Monday at the latest.

Jack Holt Jr., chief assistant attorney general, who is representing Faubus and other defendants, asked to be allowed until May 20 to file his brief, then said he could get it in by May 15 if he could see a copy of Bullion's brief this week. May 15 finally was agreed upon.

Justice F. McFaddin told Holt after he proposed the May 20 date that "We adjourn the first Monday in June and you're crowding us."

Chief Justice Carleton Harris then asked, "Is that (May 20) the very best you can?"

After some discussion, Holt agreed to May 15 and Bullion agreed to furnish Holt with a typewritten copy of his brief on Wednesday.

James L. Sloan, attorney for several intervenors, also said he could have his brief ready by May 15.

Chancellor Guy E. Williams last week held the omnibus act constitutional and Cottrell appealed. The law appropriates money for state construction, for salaries and for operation of various agencies.

Former Prescott Man Dies Saturday

George A. Thomas, aged 79, a former resident of Prescott, died Saturday at a Benton hospital. He was a retired carpenter-contractor and a member of the Baptist Church. Survivors include a brother, Slover Thomas, Rialto, Calif., and a niece, Mrs. Roy Burke of DeAnn.

Services were held Sunday at Oakcrest Chapel by the Rev. D. L. McCauley. Burial by Oakcrest was in Holly Grove Cemetery.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Half of Hope's employed population work in local industry. How these plants are doing today means more to local prosperity than nation-wide figures or government statements. This is the first of a series of Star interviews with industry heads in Hope.

Business at Bruner-Ivory Handle Co. was off about 20 per cent last October and November, Guy E. Basye, general manager, told The Star this past week-end, but for the four months ending March 31, it was only 1.3 per cent behind the same four months a year ago.

Current employment is within 5 or 10 per cent of normal, and the current pay roll is $13,000 a week, at the rate of $676,000 a year, Mr. Basye added.

The ash-handle division was up 10 per cent in sales for the four months ending March 31, and the hickory-handle division down 10 per cent, making the total about even.

Bruner-Ivory is shipping Hope-made handles into all 50 states regularly with the exception of Nevada, where there are no jobs. Sales Manager A. A. Albritton said. The company ships to many foreign countries, among them: New Zealand, South Africa, Mexico, Canada, Panama, Holland, Venezuela, Great Britain, Germany, Norway, Sweden and Iceland. The other day it handled a shipment to Libya — small, but still another country!

Former Resident of Hope Dies in Louisiana

John Feilding (Jack) Clark, aged 54, died today in the Baptist hospital in Alexandria, La.

He was formerly of Dawson, Neb., but lived in Hope during the construction of the local airport where he was employed. He was a veteran and served in World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Lipscomb Clark, former Hope resident, one brother, C. W. Mowery of New Orleans, La., an aunt, Mrs. Jessie Syde of Dawson, Neb., and a niece and nephew.

Funeral services will be held in Alexandria, La. on Tuesday by the Hixon Funeral Home. Burial will be in National Cemetery.

U.S. Silent on Castro Blast at Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Official Washington withheld immediate comment today on a salvo of accusations fired at President Kennedy by Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Spokesmen here declined to give a quick response to Castro's charge that "the threat of Kennedy is much like the threat of Hitler" and that the U.S. administration threatens the world with war.

Kennedy moved to build up greater unity for his position on Cuba and for possible future action on the thorny problem of growing Communist prestige in the Caribbean island.

The White House announced that Kennedy would see New York's Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Tuesday afternoon. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson is going to Independence, Mo., Tuesday to talk with former President Harry S. Truman.

These visits have been described as for the purpose of giving leaders of both parties full information. But an attempt to round up bipartisan support for the President seemed obvious.

Kennedy met Saturday with his predecessor, Dwight D. Eisenhower, at Camp David, Md., and got from the former Republican president a call to all Americans to support Kennedy in the Cuban crisis.

Another obvious goal of the administration is to stiffen Latin American nations against Communist penetration in the Western Hemisphere. Kennedy touched off this part of his Cuban campaign last week in a speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

He indicated then that the United States would go it alone if other Western Hemisphere nations "should fail to meet their commitments against outside Communist penetration."

This campaign seemed to bear fruit over the weekend.

In a joint declaration, Presidents Janio Quadros of Brazil and Arturo Frondizi of Argentina affirmed a stand against "direct or indirect interference by extrajurisdictional factors" in hemisphere affairs.

Another concrete action was Honduras' breaking of diplomatic relations with Cuba. In Guatemala, President Miguel Ydigoras called on the United States to show its "guts" and act even more boldly.

Texarkana Teachers Get Pay Boosts

TEXARKANA — A $200 per year increase in salary for all teachers in the Texarkana, Ark. public school system has been approved by the board of education.

That means a minimum annual salary of $3,415 and a maximum of $3,865 for those with a bachelor degree, and a minimum annual salary of $3,600 and a maximum of $4,200 for those with a masters degree.

State Trooper Paul Hamilton said the Negroes' car failed to negotiate a curve and slammed into a car occupied by Herbert Wayne Fox, 20, of Crossett, and Johnnie Dumas, 20, of Hamburg. They were hospitalized.

Killed were Charles Gaston, W. C. Brock, Majorie Allen and James Calvin Nelson, all in their 20s, from Crossett. Hamilton said Gaston was driving.

New Generator in Production

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — With a 20,000 kilowatt hydroelectric generator now in production, the Army Corps of Engineers Little Rock district has installed capacity of 380,000 kilowatts, Col. A. M. Jacoby said.

The new generator, the third of four units, is in production at Table Rock Dam near Branson, Mo.

The other two units are at Bull Shoals and Norfolk Dams, with 160,000 and 70,000 respectively.

Two additional 45,000 kilowatt units will go into operation in December and two more in 1962 at Bull Shoals, Jacoby said.

Hope Site of Forest Queen Contest

Forestry is a big and growing industry in Arkansas.

Chances are good that more people will be hearing about it. That's the object of a stepped-up program of promoting forest management and sale of wood products, a new activity of Arkansas Farm Bureau carried out in cooperation with the State Forestry Commission, the Keep Arkansas Green Association and other forest interests.

County Farm Bureaus in forest areas are organizing and asking help for the job.

One of the primary activities is sponsorship of contests to select Forest Queens for district and state contests. The successor to the 1961 Arkansas Forest Queen, Miss Glenda Itawis of Crossett, will be named at conclusion of the state competition September 2 at Little Rock.

County winners will vie for district honors in contests between August 15 and 25 at Clarksville, Hope, Monticello, Jonesboro and Jacksonville.

Other activities will be: Forest utilization programs presented to organizations within the counties, encouraging local builders to use wood materials, displays at public events such as county fairs, tours of wood-using industries and school poster contests.

"Growing trees for the market is catching on rapidly with farmers in our forest areas," according to Harold F. Ohlendorf, Osceola farmer who is president of Arkansas Farm Bureau. "Farmers and other small owners account for two-thirds of the state's 21 million acres of commercial forest land. We believe that through local participation in educational and promotional activities farmers can encourage better forest management and increased use of wood products."

With annual sales of over a half billion dollars annually, the state's forest industry uses 38 per cent of the total industrial labor force. Its yearly payroll is $133 million.

PTA Congress in Session

French Fear Invasion Try From Algeria

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

PARIS (AP) — Fearful of a paratroop invasion by army mutineers from Algeria, the French government today announced plans to call up reservists to strengthen its defenses at home. Premier Michel Debre in a communique said units loyal to the government would be "reinforced by individual callups which will permit the constitution of reserve units with regular officers."

Debre announced the callup after a night of electric tension sparked by his own warning that the government feared an airborne attempt to seize the French capital.

The invasion didn't materialize during the night and some of the special precautions were relaxed. But the French air force remained on the alert and jet interceptor squadrons were ordered to fire on any unauthorized plane from Algeria.

As the right-wing mutineers in Algeria claimed more and more of the troops there were joining their rebellion against De Gaulle's Algerian policy, labor and professional organizations from left to right called on their members to defend the republic.

Volunteers by the hundreds streamed to the Interior Ministry in Paris, clamoring for arms. They were given rifles or carbines and partial uniforms, organized into 10-man squads and sent out to guard public buildings.

As dawn broke over the French capital, thousands of tank-supported troops and security forces were on guard at key points.

Much of France went on a virtual war footing after Premier Michel Debre told a nationwide TV-radio audience Sunday night that an attack from Algeria could come anytime. Rumors flew that 1,500 paratroopers in 30 planes had taken off from Algeria.

All commercial air traffic to and from France was halted. Trucks were parked on airport runways to prevent the landing of any troop carriers. Labor union members assembled at union headquarters to back up the security forces if needed.

This morning the Interior Ministry announced that "fear of what could have happened during the night on the territory of metropolitan France did not materialize." Obstacles were removed from runways and commercial air traffic was allowed to resume.

Star Sponsors High School Press Contest

FAYETTEVILLE — The Hope Star is one of 12 Arkansas newspapers sponsoring awards for winners of the Arkansas High School Press Association contests this spring.

Winners of the annual contests conducted by the association will be announced Saturday (April 29) at the AHSPPA convention to be held at Arkansas State Teachers College in Conway.

Sixty-two Arkansas high school and junior high school newspapers are competing for honors in the contests, reported Jess B. Covington, Chairman of the University of Arkansas Department of Journalism and Executive Secretary of the Arkansas High School Press Association. Around $250 in cash prizes are to be given.

The Hope Star is sponsoring the prizes for the news photograph contests.

"We are very thankful for the cash awards," Covington said. "We need their help as we try to promote interest in journalism at the high school level."

The idea for the awards came from a group of school newspaper sponsors who decided last year that cash prizes would stimulate more interest in the annual contests conducted by the AHSPPA.

THE STORY: When Dixie McQueen, a former girl friend, arrives to visit Max Daney on the eve of his wedding to Laura Reynolds, Jim Ben'ett introduces Dixie to Max's mother as Sandy Hollis's sister. Sandy is Jim's fiancée.

CHAPTER VII

"Cecil should have taken your luggage up. That boy is getting more lax every day." Mrs. Daney strode to the fireplace, pressed a button in the wall and turned to Dixie. "Would you like to share your sister's room, or would you prefer one of your own?"

"It—it doesn't matter," Dixie stammered. "But if it's all right, I'll stay with my—my sister."

She shot me an uncertain glance and I made a circle with a thumb and forefinger. I was proud of her.

I said glibly, "Dixie was shopping in Cleveland and came out in a taxi and has just arrived. Sandy and I came out earlier."

Cecil appeared, looking apprehensive.

"Why hasn't Miss Hollis' luggage been taken up?" Mrs. Daney demanded.

"Well, I—I—" Cecil shot me an imploring glance.

I took over and said to Mrs. Daney, "He was not certain about the room." I turned to Cecil.

"Please take Miss Hollis' things to her sister's room." And I winked at him.

"Yes, sir." He left quickly. I wished that I could wash my hands of the situation as easily.

It was just pure blind luck that caused me to turn at that moment and gaze through the French doors toward the terrace. Sandy appeared there, apparently having come up from the beach. "Excuse me," I said abruptly and left. There was no help for it; I had to tip off Sandy.

I met her on the terrace, drew her back beneath the awning and said, "We have a problem. I talked the girl into leaving, but Mrs. Daney came down ahead of schedule and ruined it. She saw the girl and I had to introduce them—and."

"The poor kid," I covered up for her. She's supposed to be your kid sister from Chicago. She was smart enough to go along with it. I think she knows she could make it rough for Max, but at the same time it would be embarrassing for her. I hated to leave her alone with Mrs. Daney, but I had to give you the score."

"How long is this little sister of"

"Such a lovely girl," Mrs. Daney said wistfully. "A good girl of high character. I can always tell. I've protected Maxwell from so many of the scheming, greedy, shameless ones." She sighed and gazed intently at her glass. "They were all alike—I knew the second I saw them. Fortunately, I was able to convince him of my better judgment. But this time it happened when I was away, in Paris, and when Max cabled that he was getting married I flew home instantly, hoping to dissuade him. But it was too late."

"You know her, then?" I asked politely.

"Do I know her? I sized her up immediately when Max introduced us in Sarasota. I even had her investigated. Sordid is the word. I told Maxwell the facts and thought I'd convinced him to drop her. But after I left—I had promised to visit friends in Rio—she apparently got at him again."

"Mrs. Daney drank from the glass. "I'm sorry, James. When it comes to Maxwell's happiness and welfare—I forget myself."

Cub Hurler Fans 17, Takes the Limelight

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
Art Mahaffey's feat of striking out 17 Chicago Cubs, only one short of the major league record, in a Philadelphia shutout sweep Sunday overshadowed the early struggles in the pennant race.

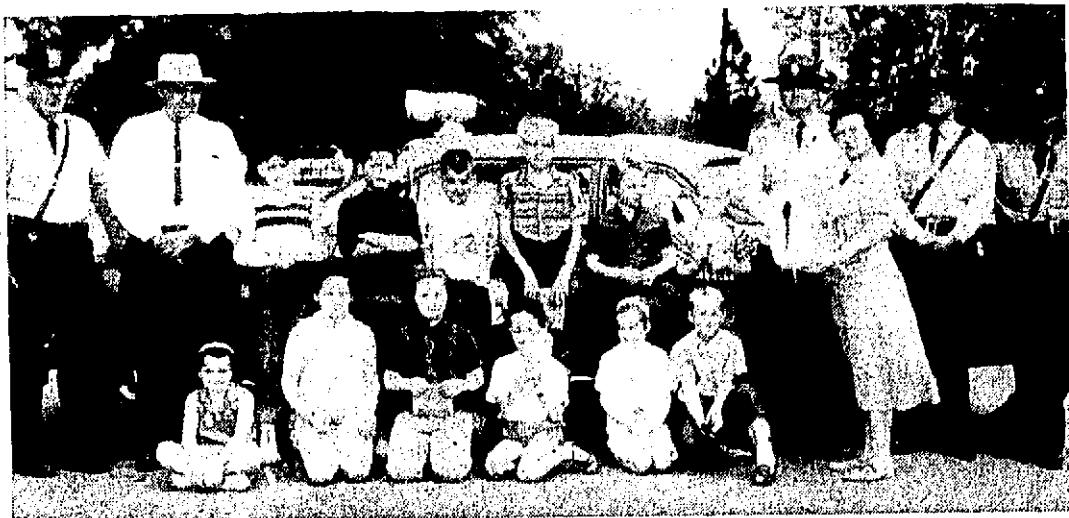

Los Angeles clung to first place when San Francisco faltered and lost the second game to St. Louis. A Giant victory would have put them on top of the heap.

If it had not been for Mahaffey and Frank Sullivan, who teamed up with a startling pair of 1-0 and 6-0 shutouts for the last-place Phillies, the big news might have been Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who won game No. 289 on his 40th birthday. Spahn just missed a shutout when Don Hoak homered for Pittsburgh in the ninth, but he won 3-1.

Or it might have been Wally Moon, the spectacular Los Angeles Dodger who continued to slap those "moon shots" over the left field screen at the Coliseum. He hit another, his eighth homer of the season, all to the wrong field for a left-handed batter. Moon's hit gave him a .500 batting average and helped the league-leading Dodgers trim Cincinnati 5-1 on a six-hitter by Roger Craig.

San Francisco had a chance to

Bicycle Rodeo Winners Are Announced

Billy O'Dell, who failed in the second game, teamed up with rookie Bob Bolin to put down a Cardinal uprising in the first game and saved the verdict for Sam Jones.

ers in 1959. Mahaffey allowed only four hits.

Although Dick Ellsworth allowed only three hits in the first game, the Phils beat him behind Sullivan when Bobby Gene Smith crashed a home run in the ninth.

Spahn was closing in on his 52nd shutout when Hoak hit his home run in the ninth. He gave up seven hits and struck out four, boosting his lifetime total to 2,005. Vern Law, the Pirates' 20-game winner last year, suffered his third straight defeat.

Moon continued his fantastic spring spurt in the Coliseum where he has hit safely in all 12 games. Don Demeter also homered for the Dodgers and Jerry Lynch smashed his second pinch homer for the Reds.

Just when the Giants appeared poised to take over first place, the Cardinals rose up with their five-run spurt in the ninth to grab the second game. McDermott, signed as a free agent to help the bullpen corps, smashed his three-run pinch double off relief man underway today.

Head coach Frank Broyles has scrimmages planned for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

In the first full dress intra-squad scrimmage Saturday, the Red Unit, under the leadership of quarterback George McKinney, defeated the White team 19-7.

Broyles commented that the Red unit's first touchdown drive looked good. "But from there on, the heat took it out of the players," he said.

McKinney set up the first two T.D.'s on a 75-yard series of passes and option runs with half-back Jesse Branch plunging over and Tim Langston for defense from the three-yard line to score. A 50-yard pass from McKinney to right halfback Fred Melder got the ball rolling from the second Red touchdown and fullback Fred Marshall crossed the goal line. The Red unit's scoring attack was climaxed by an 87-yard punt return by Branch who momentarily bobbled the pigskin but managed to elude would-be White tacklers for the score.

A 43-yard drive in seven plays netted the White unit its lone tally under the guidance of quarterback Billy Moore who carried the ball to the two and then slipped across for the touchdown. Broyles singled out several players for outstanding performances. He cited ends Jim Brile and Tim Langston for doing well on both offense and defense.

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar period, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.
